

Spring Education Event

Sat, March 27

Leader: Dr. Bob Jewett

Let's take day to focus on connecting our faith and the world in which we live.

Does first-century Christianity have anything relevant to say to Christians today? Dr. Bob Jewett, our guest lecturer at this year's spring education event, makes the connections to contemporary culture in unexpected ways. How do Christians today, wanting to live a servant lifestyle, respond in a global community, where militarism and imperialism seem to be the norm?

When: Sat, March 27, 9am – 3pm

Where: First Congregational United Church of Christ
4600 Hamilton Blvd, Sioux City

Cost: $20 ($25 after 3/21)

Contact: Alaire Willits, alairew@msn.com

Jewett, a Biblical scholar and professor known for his work on the Apostle Paul, will give us fresh, exciting perspectives and insights to the texts. The day will include morning and afternoon presentations by Dr. Jewett, based on his latest book project on the theme of American imperialism and the issue of occupying Afghanistan and Iraq. There will be time for questions.

A book table will be on site, provided by Soul Desires of Omaha.

Lunch will also be available at the church. Free will offering will be used by church youth for summer projects and activities.

Pre-registration for the day is strongly encouraged. More info about Dr Jewett available on church website.
