call \ 'kòl \

to summon to a particular activity, employment or office

What does it mean?

How do we implement it?

To what are we called?

Explore the answers to these questions with your colleagues from throughout the Iowa Conference for some Eastertide hours of renewal and refreshment. Re-charge with time for worship, time for reflection, time for conversation, time for play, and time for opportunities to gain richer insight into our experiences of God's call.

Registration forms available at www.ucciaconf.org.

WORKSHOP LEADERS

Bruce Williams

Since being ordained in 1978 by the Kansas-Oklahoma Conference of the UCC, Bruce has worked as a hospital chaplain and parish pastor, as well as a pastoral counselor. He has done the latter full time since 1985. Bruce is certified as a Fellow in the American Association of Pastoral Counselors (AAPC) and is licensed by the state of Iowa as Licensed Mental Health Counselor (LMHC) and Licensed Master Social Worker (LMSW). After living in Iowa City for 20 years, he and his wife Bonnie moved to Cedar Rapids in 1998. Railroading is his primary hobby.

Shannon Dallenbach Durbin is lover, mama, and artist. She is a licensed spiritual director who focuses her practice on the healing and guiding powers of art on the journey. Shannon works primarily with Christian individuals and groups. She is a member of Peace United Church of Christ in Elkader, where she serves on the council and attends with her husband Bryce and their 7-month-old son, Link.
